

EVENT

IEEE Women In Engineering (WIE), Windsor Section Inauguration Ceremony

Attendees:

- Dr. Esam Abdel-Raheem (Speaker)
Associate Professor, Department of Electrical and Computer
Engg., University of Windsor
Chair and Founding Member, IEEE Windsor Section
- Dr. Mitra Mirhassani (Speaker)
Associate Professor, Department of Electrical and Computer
Engg., University of Windsor
Senior Member, IEEE
- Dr. Jacqueline Stagner (Speaker)
Undergraduate Programs Coordinator,
University of Windsor
Senior Member, ONWIE
- Students and Staff of the University of Windsor

Event Excerpts:

- Formal inauguration of the newly formed WIE affinity group under IEEE Windsor Section
- Memorable information:
 - IEEE WIE Windsor Section Chair Ms. Bahar Youssefi's address
indicating the essential points of IEEE and IEEE WIE membership
 - Dr. Abdel-Raheem's address indicating the necessity of WIE and its activities

- Dr. Mirhassani's discussion of the general problems faced by females in choosing engineering as a career option
- Dr. Stagner's address highlighting ONWIE and UWindsor's role in encouraging high school female students to pursue a career in engineering

Venue:

- Rm 1101 CEI, University of Windsor

Date and Time:

- Date: 29th April, 2015
- Presentations and QA: 2pm–3pm
- Social hour: 3pm – 3:45 pm

Event Rationale:

- To celebrate the formal initiation of IEEE WIE, Windsor Section
- To increase awareness among students about the activities of IEEE WIE
- To learn from experienced individuals about the activities and aims of Women In Engineering and its role in serving the society